

PENINSULA PEOPLE

SPOTLIGHT ON THE HILL

Little Sisters of the Poor Skyline Gala

The Auxiliary of the Little Sisters of the Poor hosted its 16th annual event on Saturday, June 22, at the law offices of Keesel Young and Logan in Long Beach. Each year the Auxiliary organizes a silent and live auction with a cocktail hour and dinner. All proceeds go directly to the Little Sisters to support their work of caring for the elderly in need. The theme of A Skyline Gale fit perfectly with the venue's top floor location which provides a 360° view of the surrounding area including Rainbow Harbor, the Queen Mary and Palos Verdes Peninsula. The Little Sisters operate a home for 100 aged in San Pedro and the Auxiliary founded in 1997 aid the Little Sisters in their ministry. To learn more about the Little Sisters of the Poor, visit their website at www.littlesistersoftheoporsanpedro.org

1. Event Co-chairs are Mickey Zimmer and Mingli Wang.

2. Marilyn and Tom Stolpman contributed a private tour of their vineyard in Santa Ynez Valley.

3. Dan and Laura Wetzel win a private VIP tour of the Reagan Library. Rita Swartz holds the live auction poster.

4. Angela & Nick Tonsich win a party for fifty catered by Stonefire Grill.

5. Dottie Good (center) is the current Auxiliary President. Jan Werneid and Peggy DiLeva are past Auxiliary Presidents.

6. Phyllis Trujillo, Kathy Hagan and Karen Trujillo Heffernan enjoy visiting during the silent auction.

7. Monsignor David A. Sork, Pastor of St. John Fisher, with parishioner Rosemarie Grablewski, an event table sponsor.

8. Ed Kennedy and Norm and Carole LaCaze frame the view at Keesal Young and Logan.

Mother Paul is joined by other Little Sisters as she describes the needs of the Home.

