Make it a Habit

Save the Date

Why Your Contribution Makes a Difference

Trust in Divine Providence

The Little Sisters of the Poor trust completely in God's Providence, having been directed by their foundress St. Jeanne Jugan to avoid building an endowment. Their tradition is to live from donation to donation and to beg daily in the markets and places of business to provide for the needs of the aged poor.

Vow of Hospitality

By a vow of hospitality each Little Sister promises God to consecrate herself exclusively to the service of the elderly in need. An international congregation of Roman Catholic women, the Little Sisters have served in Los Angeles since 1905 offering the neediest elderly of every race and religion a home where they are welcomed as Christ, cared for as family and accompanied with dignity until God calls them to Himself.

Benefactors are Indispensable

Social Security income, pensions, and government aid pay only part of the cost of caring for the elderly residents. Each year the Sisters must raise over 60% of their operating costs from gifts, bequests and donated commodities. Like St. Jeanne Jugan, the Little Sisters recognize that benefactors are indispensable partners in their mission. And like her, they pray daily in gratitude for every kindness!

Dear Friends,

The Auxiliary of the Little Sisters of the Poor is delighted to inform you about our 20th Annual Auxiliary Little Sisters Gala, "Make it a Habit."

SATURDAY, September 16, 2017
Doubletree by Hilton Torrance - South Bay

Make it a Habit

We ask for your generous support by joining the Choir of Angels as an event underwriter. As an Angel, you join the Auxiliary and other benefactors to assist our eight local Little Sisters to care for the nearly 100 elderly whom they invite into their Residence Home. The continuation of their work depends on the generosity of many who share with them a deep belief in the dignity of every life and the desire to assist those who are less fortunate. . Our goal is to generate a major contribution for the work of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Knowing that you have expressed your support for Little Sisters in many ways in the past, we hope we can count on you to continue your support as an event underwriter. Your membership in the Choir of Angels will be a wonderful way to ease the load for the Sisters and bring happiness and comfort to our aged brothers and sisters.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to a positive response and the pleasure of having you join us for the September 16, 2017 event.

Best regards,

Libby Cigliano

Make it a Habit

May 2017

Dear Friends,

As you know, financial support for the work of the Little Sisters of the Poor is extremely important. As a benefactor you assist the Little Sisters in providing a loving home for nearly one hundred of the neediest elderly. Your help enables the Sisters to serve with great dedication, day and night, to keep their Residents safe and happy.

As Auxiliary members, we invite you to join our Choir of Angels. This is part of our annual fund-raising effort and the full amount of your gift goes directly to the Little Sisters. We also sponsor a dinner & auction which is a festive occasion to further what we are able to contribute. By becoming a Table Captain, you add to the success of the event by bringing new friends to share in what promises to be a special occasion.
